

STRUGGLE HAS ENDED

Temporarily With Both Armies Maintaining Respective Positions.

With Roads Rapidly Drying

Developments May Soon Be Looked For—
There Was Heavy Mortality in Officers on Russian Side, 172 Being Killed in Fighting of Oct. 11-13.

Fighting has not been resumed in Manchuria and the Russian General Sakharoff reports that the two armies maintain their respective positions. There is desultory artillery firing along the line and reconnaissance operations are continuous on both sides, indicating that with the rapidly drying roads, developments may soon be looked for. While official figures on the losses are still absent, St. Petersburg believes from the information in hand that the total Russian casualties during the battle of Shkhe river will not exceed twenty thousand. There was heavy mortality in officers on the Russian side, 172 being killed in the fighting of October 11 to 13, including one major general and seventeen field officers.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—At 4 p. m.—The two armies face each other across the Shkhe river but operations continue at a standstill. The heavy fog which hung over the plain was burned up by the sun yesterday afternoon, and there was some desultory artillery firing from some of the Russian batteries but nothing important. One of the Associated Press correspondents says the Japanese did not reply, indicating a possible shortage of ammunition or a desire to conceal the location of their guns. The war office has no fresh news this morning, except a list of the losses of General Ekki's seventy-fifth Siberian corps and General Morozoff's first division of Lieut. Gen. Denbow's corps. Each lost half a dozen officers. The official lists of officers killed and wounded between October 11th and 13th, total 172, including Major Gen. Rabinski, and seventeen field officers killed. The wounded are in the proportion of one to six. The "fat" for the heaviest day's fighting is still unreported, and doubtless will exceed the losses at Liao Yang when 100 officers were killed or wounded. The losses among the men are not yet reported, but they are thought to approximate not much over 20,000. News from Port Arthur brought to Che Foo by a junk which left there October 19, says a fierce bombardment which began October 16, was still progressing without interruption. Many buildings had been damaged and ships in the harbor had also been hit by shells, but the character and extent of the damages are not stated. The Japanese main forces are now posted at Liudziang.

They have placed guns of large caliber on Jumuia Mountain. The Russians continue making sorties successfully and inflicting heavy losses on the besiegers, whose losses since the commencement of the siege are said to have been 50,000.

Mukden, Oct. 21.—At 1 a. m.—Towards evening yesterday, the fog lifted and some of the Russian guns at various points opened fire against the Japanese defenses, but they did not respond either from scarcity of munition or the desire not to reveal the location of their batteries. The weather and the condition of the roads have made extensive operations impossible. But the roads are now drying hard which forecasts events in the near future.

The war correspondents in the field are kept in the dark and it is difficult to say when and how this dreadful slaughter will end.

Not One Escaped. Mukden, Oct. 21.—Every man of the two hundred Cossacks commanded by Captain Tournieff who on Tuesday night reconnoitered the Japanese left southwestward and who near Sandoung unexpectedly encountered a good sized Japanese force with machine guns, was wounded and every horse, except Captain Tournieff's, was hit by the bullets from the Japanese machine guns. Tournieff, though mortally wounded, carried off one man behind his saddle while others managed to creep back to camp. But as already reported, one man was killed on the field. There is the greatest fear on the part of the Russian wounded of falling into the hands of the Japanese, the Russians being convinced that they torture their prisoners.

HE DECLARED HIS INNOCENCE.

Deplorable Tragedy in Which Two Boys of Tender Years are Principals.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 21.—A Journal special from Mount Pleasant says that 6 year old John Burns, of Loomis, who is detained at the county jail as the result of the fatal shooting of 8 year old Arthur Burwash, while the lads, with Clyde Harvey, were in the woods together, declares that the shooting was an accident and says that he left the wounded and dying boy in the woods, at his own request. Burns says that Burwash was fooling with his (Burns) gun, when it was accidentally discharged, the charge entering the boy's thigh and nearly severing the leg. The wounded lad refused to be carried home, Burns says, and did not want assistance brought to him, so Burns and Harvey lifted him out of a pool of blood and laid him on the roots of a tree. The little fellow fainted and they, thinking he was dead, hurried back to town. Three times Burns went back to look at the wounded boy, who had revived a little but from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 11 o'clock at night, he kept the dreadful affair to himself. When Clyde Harvey had broken down, and told the story Burns led the searchers to the dying boy, who was taken to town where he lived one hour. Burns says he expects to be punished, but seems to be very little disturbed over the affair.

They have placed guns of large caliber on Jumuia Mountain. The Russians continue making sorties successfully and inflicting heavy losses on the besiegers, whose losses since the commencement of the siege are said to have been 50,000.

MILLIONS Of Dollars Worth of Good Property

Depends on the Issue of the Suit.

An Unusual Condition Exists in the Texas Oil Field Where There Are Many Claimants For Property.

Orange, Tex., Oct. 21.—On the identity of an oil woman's crippled toe depends the title to a million dollars' worth of property in the Batson oil district of this State. The toe was introduced as evidence in the suit just tried at Houston, but the jury could not agree as to its genuineness, and the case goes back to the calendar for another trial.

Twenty years ago Mary Kingston was left a widow with one child, a girl of five, and a tract of land on the Batson prairie which she loved. The land was then a worthless piece of property and Mrs. Kingston abandoned it and moved to Harris county with her little girl.

Shortly after that she disappeared, deserting the child, who was taken by a sister of Mrs. Kingston, who lived on the Batson prairie near the abandoned Kingston property. A year or so later word was received by this sister from the western part of Texas, that a woman had died and been buried there who said her name was Mary Kingston and that she had a sister and other relatives, including a daughter, at Batson, and in Harris county.

About a year ago following the oil developments at Beaumont and other places in that field it was discovered at Batson, and a great boom in land ensued. The abandoned Kingston tract became the most valuable territory in that locality.

Mrs. Kingston's daughter had been cared for and raised by her aunt. When the prairie tract came thus into prominence she had no difficulty in establishing her right to it as heir-at-law of her mother, and an offer of $1,000,000 was made to her for the property.

She refused it and the development of the territory put her in possession of some of the finest wells in the State. There has been much decline in oil prices during the past few months, but Mrs. Kingston's income from the property is at present $1,500 a month.

It is less than a year since the Batson field came into prominence, and when the Kingston wells were at the height of their prosperity a bent and shriveled old woman appeared at Batson and announced that she was the long missing Mary Kingston, supposed to be dead these twenty years, and that consequently the property was hers.

Mrs. Kingston had sold off parcels of the land at big prices, her title to the property being thought beyond question.

Mrs. Kingston denied the old woman's assertions, as did the aunt (Mr. Buckles, and all other relatives of Mary Kingston took sides with the claimant.

The claimant said that she had been living in St. Bernard county ever since she disappeared, and had herself sent the news that she had died. It had been her intention never to correct the belief that she was dead, but having learned of the sudden wealth that had come through the oil wells, she resolved to return to Batson and claim the property, as it was hers.

The case came up in court at the trial. Mrs. Buckles, on the witness stand made the declaration that Mary Kingston had had a crippled toe, having cut off the tip of the big toe on her right foot with an ax when a girl. The nail had grown out and down over the place where the tip had been and turned the end of the toe.

If the claimant was Mary Kingston, the witness said, that mark of identification would still be present.

The claimant was put on the stand and she said she had a crippled toe, and removing the shoe and stockings from her right foot, proved her assertion. But the crippled toe she produced was not the big toe of the foot. It was the toe next to the big one. And it had not been cut off, but showed evidence of having been mashed off. It had no freak growth of nail.

She declared that her sister had testified falsely as to the toe and the way she had crippled it. The genuine crippled Mary Kingston toe, she said, was the one she was putting in evidence.

She was sustained in this by Joseph Gerson, who accepts the claimant as his sister, Mary Kingston.

A bishop will also be sent to Cuba and one to Mexico; in the latter country a bishop to have oversight of all the English-speaking people. In a sermon today, to the national council of the clerical union for the maintenance and defense of the catholic principles, Right Rev. Reginald G. Weller, D. D., made a plea for contributions towards the work in the west. He said it had often been charged that Catholic parishes in the east spent more money for music alone than is available for the entire maintenance of some western districts. He thought the eastern Catholic parishes should contribute more to the west to whom, he said, they owe their continuance. Had it not been for the diocese, he declared, the eastern Catholic parishes would have been legislated out of existence long ago. The national council of the clerical union afterwards held a brief session presided over by bishop Nicholson, of Milwaukee.

Y., 37 years ago, and was ordained an Episcopal minister in 1875 at Catskill. Owing to his brilliant oratorical powers his rise was rapid; but reports that he had become a drug victim finally led to Adams' leaving the pulpit and his removal to California, where he was tried a year ago for killing Dr. J. G. Jessup, who had frequently berated him. Jessup had interfered while Adams was leading his 14 year old daughter. He was sent to an asylum and later was released. # TROUBLE MISSIVE.

Children Intercept Letter Written to Their Aged Father,

Then Beat Writer to Death.

Attending Physician Was Unable to Arouse Woman Sufficiently to Get Statement From Her About the Deed. Her Assaultants Tell Their Story.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 21.—Mrs. Nellie Thomason, wife of a former prominent real estate dealer in this city, is dead at her home in Lacon, as the result of injuries received in a sensational encounter with Richard and Jennie Higgins, a prominent member of the board of supervisors of Peoria county and prominent in republican politics. Young Higgins is 24 years old and his sister is 20.

They intercepted a letter written to Higgins senior by Mrs. Thomason, in which she asked the elder Higgins to meet her in the depot of the Rock Island letter. The missive asked Higgins to meet her in the depot of the Rock Island letter. The missive asked Higgins to meet her in the depot of the Rock Island letter.

When Mrs. Thomason arrived she was confronted by Young Higgins and his sister. What took place is a mystery as only the three and an uncle of Higgins were present. Some time later, however, the woman asked C. A. Brant, the ticket agent, to assist her to the train. He did so and when she was gone, discovered the floor of the waiting room covered with blood. The woman lingered in great agony at her home in Lacon until she died.

Higgins is under arrest on a state warrant charging him with murder. The case has created a sensation. Mrs. Thomason had been in a comatose condition since Wednesday night, refusing even at intervals to speak a word or two. Her lip was severed, both eyes were blackened, one shoulder was displaced and her back was covered with bruises. She was also suffering from internal injuries. The attending physician was unable to arouse the patient sufficiently to get a dying statement from her.

"We had been trying for years to break up the relations between my father and this woman," he said. "When we got that letter my sister and I went down there to see if we could not make some arrangements with her. We met her in the waiting room. I went up to her and touched her on the shoulder."

"Mrs. Thomason I believe," I said. She turned around quickly and said, "Oh, it's you, is it?" and drew out her hat. I then pushed her sharply against the side of the face and knocked her over a chair. My sister then pulled me away and told me that I would be arrested—that we could not do anything with her. That's all there was to it."

Miss Jennie Higgins made the following statement: "I had nothing to do with the affair whatever, only as a witness. I saw Mrs. Thomason attack my brother with a hat pin and then he struck her several times. I did not engage in the scuffle."

Mrs. Thomason has not lived with her husband J. W. Thomason for three years and at the time of her death did not know where he was located. They were not divorced. The name of the uncle who was an eye witness of the tragedy is Douglas McDonald. He is a merchant of Monica, Ills.

CANNON

Called at White House With Jolly.

Told the President He Could Rest Assured of Republican Victory.

His Presence Broke Up a Cabinet Meeting, The Members Wanting to Hear From One Around the Circle.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Speaker Cannon called at the White House today and gave the president and members of the cabinet nothing but cheering news of his observations of the political situation in the states through which he has been campaigning. The speaker arrived in Washington early today and went to Baltimore this afternoon. He expects to speak in that city tonight. He reached the White House as the cabinet members were assembling for their semi-weekly meeting. The president, the speaker and the cabinet officers had an animated talk on politics before the cabinet formally began business. Speaker Cannon gave the president and his advisors assurance that West Virginia in which he has just made a thorough campaign, surely would cast its electoral vote for the republican national ticket.

As he left the White House, Speaker Cannon chatted freely with his newspaper friends. "I am going to Baltimore today," he said. "I speak there tonight. Tomorrow I expect to speak in Lancaster and York, Pa. After that I am not certain what route has been mapped out for me."

"Are you going to get back to Illinois during the campaign?" inquired one of the reporters. "You know, Carter Harrison says Illinois is a doubtful state."

"Yes," responded the speaker, Carter Harrison is a powerful knowing man, but I reckon we will worry through with the normal republican plurality. But I am going home to vote you know."

"How about West Virginia?" "Oh, West Virginia will be republican by a big plurality," the speaker replied, "and we'll have a solid republican delegation in the house from that state, too."

JEALOUSY MAY HAVE LED TO THIS MURDER.

Woonsocket, R. I., Oct. 21.—The local police do not know Joseph Monguon, the victim of the Crookston, Minn., murder, and are considerably mystified by the case.

Monguon's name does not appear in the local directory. The fact that aliases from Crookston, received by the local officials here three days ago, indicated that the dead man had a letter in his pocket bearing the maiden name of the wife of Joseph Guilmette, of this city, and that Guilmette was with Monguon when he was last seen alive, is taken by the police that jealousy may have led to the murder.

HE TALKS BUSINESS.

Judge Parker Talks Earnestly to New Jersey Democrats.

Woeful Extravagance of the Present Administration Is Shown when the Lid Is Pried Off. Hundreds Stand in the Rain to Hear His Arraignment of Roosevelt's Expensive Policies.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Judge Parker addressed a delegation from Hudson county, N. J., on the subject of administrative extravagance, answering a speech made by Secretary of War Taft in which the secretary called upon the democrats to give a bill of particulars in connection with their charge that economy in government affairs had been forgotten in the years the republicans have been in control of national affairs. Judge Parker quoted a few totals from official reports which he said not only raised the presumption of extravagance but proved it. A bill of particulars will be given, he said, when a democratic administration gets a chance at the books. From midnight until afternoon today rain fell in torrents.

Streams overflowed, the roads were converted into brooks and made nearly impassable for pedestrians. Nevertheless New Jersey delegations formed a procession at the Esopus station of the West Shore railroad and marched to Rosemount. It had been the intention of the organizers of the trip to have two special trains of 2,000 persons. The trains were to leave Jersey City at 10 o'clock and arrive at Esopus at noon. At 10 o'clock rain was falling in sheets at Jersey City and New Democrats had arrived at the trains. An hour later a delegation sufficient to fill ten coaches had arrived and notwithstanding the deluge determined to pay their visit to the candidate despite the certainty of a mud bath at the Esopus end of their journey.

Reaching Judge Parker's house the delegation surrounded the veranda. Though the rainfall had ceased the trees were dripping and umbrellas had to be raised. When Judge Parker stepped from the house he was greeted by cheers and hand clapping.

The New Jersey delegation was presented to Judge Parker by Representative Allan Denny, of Bayonne, who made a short address. Judge Parker said:

"The expenditures of the government—says the administration—have been managed in a spirit of economy as far removed from waste as from parsimony."

"That the expenditures of the government have been free from niggardiness cannot, I think, be truthfully denied, hence it should be, and is, frankly admitted."

"With the claim that the expenditures have been managed in a spirit of economy, we must take issue. The facts presented in support of the charge of extravagance have not been answered."

"We asserted that only seven years ago and under a democratic president, the total expenses of this government were less than three hundred and sixty millions of dollars and we charged that in the last fiscal year the expenditures were over five hundred and eighty-two millions of dollars. These figures have not been denied and they cannot be. Deducting from the latter amount the sum paid by this government for the Panama canal and the Panama canal rights, we still have five hundred and thirty-two millions of dollars. After making two millions of dollars for making two millions of dollars, we find that it cost about one hundred and sixty-six millions of dollars more to run the government last year than it did seven years ago. That statement on its face raised the presumption of extravagance and waste, a presumption which requires evidence to overcome."

"None has been presented. By way of indirect answer to the democratic charge of extravagance the inquiry has been put by the administration whether we propose to cut off the pensions? We answer, certainly not. And we further assert that the inference suggested by the question is not ingenious. The amount paid out in pensions? We answer, certainly not. Since 1895. But for the unwarranted order No. 72—which was fully considered in my letter of acceptance—the amount paid for pensions in the seventh preceding year would have exceeded the amount paid last year. As it was, the difference was only one and one-half millions of dollars. It is therefore necessary for the administration to look in other directions than the disbursement for pensions for the justification for the excess of expenditures of last year over that of seven years ago, of over one hundred and sixty-six millions of dollars. The inquiry is further made by the administration whether we would dare to reduce the cost of the army. We answer that most assuredly we would, and we ask the people to decide between the administration and the democratic contention on that point. In the year of 1897 the war department cost less than forty-nine millions of dollars, which was about the average cost per year for the preceding twenty-six years. This last year, a year of peace, the cost of the army was one hundred and fifteen millions of dollars. One of the questions we now ask the people is: 'What is the use of spending more than double on the army now than we deemed wise to spend previous to the Spanish war?'

A large standing army was unnecessary then so our statement though, and the result proved. It is alike unnecessary unless militarism is to become a part of our policy."

"If we are to play the roll of the big policeman in the south American states, requiring each to act as a model to some administration, corruption of decency in industrial and political matters and further require it to 'keep order' and pay its obligations, according to the standard which may be set by each succeeding administration, and if in addition the administration may at pleasure see fit that the states 'govern themselves well and be prosperous and orderly' according to the criterion which may be set by each administration, then we should readily admit that we should have an army costing one hundred and fifteen millions of dollars a year. We should frankly concede that the chances are that an attempt to execute such a policy will require a much larger army than we have now, and much greater expenditures of more than one hundred and fifteen million dollars a year."

"But the people have not as yet approached the administration's policy in dealing with the South American states. They have not yet said by their vote that they are in favor of conferring upon the president the power to interfere with the internal affairs of a South American state at pleasure; to investigate their form of government; to see whether or not he is satisfied with it and in the event that he is not, to summarily decree their punishment as in his judgment the circumstances warrant."

"But the president has not the power to declare a police dictatorship, or a form of armed intervention, when over he shall decide the circumstance justify it. An attempt to exercise such a power would constitute a usurpation prohibited by the constitution of the United States. Hence it is safe to assume that notwithstanding the letter of Secretary Root which was read at the Cuba anniversary dinner, no administration will dare to establish a universal protectorate over American states or to become responsible for their misdeeds."

"M. Olney admirably stated the purpose of the Monroe doctrine in his address at Harvard college, March 2, 1898, when he said: 'The vital feature of the Monroe doctrine is that no European power shall forcibly possess itself of American soil and forcibly control the political fortunes and destinies of its people.' That is the national position, and it will be maintained."

"But how South Americans shall behave toward each other, or whether they shall govern themselves well or be prosperous, is not part of the doctrine."

"Until the people shall amend the constitution so as to permit the execution of the remarkable policy suggested by the letter of Secretary Root, it is perfectly safe to say that we shall have not mounted for a larger army than we formerly had. In the conduct of the war department alone there can be saved to the people many millions a year, which the administration does not only propose to save, but is frank enough to say it will take another illustration, which I recite as furnishing strong presumptive evidence of extravagance. Seven years ago under democratic administration the civil and miscellaneous expenses of the government amounted to ninety millions of dollars for the year. During all the history of this country the expenditures of this character had been gradually mounting upward as the country increased in population until finally it had reached the sum of ninety millions."

"Now, what has happened? So tremendously have our expenditures increased that they have grown during the last seven years to one hundred and eighty-six million dollars. More than eighty-six million dollars. More than double the expenditures of 1897. If we deduct the extraordinary expenditures for the Panama Canal and rights, amounting to fifty million dollars, we still find the expenditures under that head to be forty-six million dollars more than they were seven years ago, an increase of more than fifty per cent. I have on another occasion referred to the waste of money in the Philippines, putting the cost to us at six hundred and fifty million dollars, in addition to the twenty million dollars paid to Spain for taking the place of warring lives and money in the Philippines, asserting not a dollar of it will ever come back to us. The figures so far have betrayed a desire to destroy the effect the statement should have. To that end an attempt is made to be made as to the amount expended."

"The defenders of this policy of waste say that I put the figures too high. An examination of the speeches of senators and republicans in con-

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

South Side Minister Takes unto Himself a Wife—Small Fire Yesterday—Other Newsy Notes.

One of south Lima's dear old mothers, well-known as "Aunt Sallie" Ashton, passed away at her late home, 916 Greenlawn avenue, at 6:30 this morning. She had been in very poor health during the past month or so. Mrs. Ashton was born near Mansfield, O., and was past 83 years of age. Her husband, Wm. Ashton, died in March, fourteen years ago, and her only son and heir, Mack Ashton, the machinist, died five years ago in September.

Deceased had resided in south Lima nearly seventeen years, and was loved by all who knew her, as a kindhearted, dear old christian mother.

Funeral arrangements have not as yet been arranged.

Cheerful Greeting to Aged Father.

Yesterday was the 81st birthday anniversary of Mr. G. G. Grant, and the event was honored by the gathering together of five daughters, eleven grand children, five great-grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

The old gentleman was given a silver offering, and the following persons helped to make the event a pleasant one, and partook of a most delightful supper: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Grant and daughter Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Young and daughter Leota and son John, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dawson, Mrs. Olive Sprague and son Ross and daughter Jessie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young and sons Robert and Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vermillion, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Grant and sons Elmer and Charles, A. A. Grant, Mrs. Hilda Grant, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Grant Jr. and son Earl, and Mrs. J. A. The train will leave nearby towns as follows: Elgin, 1:15 p. m.; Spencerville, 1:30; Kemp, 1:40, and will arrive in Lima at 2 o'clock. Three hours and a half will be given the visitors, before the special train leaves, returning at 5:30. Bryan will arrive over the Pennsylvania at 3:20, and he will be allowed forty minutes in which to discuss the issues of this campaign.

Sunday School Association Officers.

Sloniker; recording secretary, Miss Carrie Gamble; teachers' training secretary, Miss Eunice Stumbaugh; of Beaverdam; primary secretary, Mrs. Lucile Lippincott.

The music furnished by the ladies' quartette was most charming. The quartette was composed of Mrs. W. M. Curry, Mrs. Coral McKinnon, and Misses Pearl Jackson and Nellie Smith.

Addresses were delivered by Dr. J. M. Avann, on "Need of Teacher Training."

MALARIA IN THE SYSTEM

Holly Springs, Miss., March 24, 1903. While building railroads in Tennessee some twelve years ago a number of hands contracted fever and various forms of blood and skin diseases. I carried S. S. I began using your S. S. S. probably ten years ago for Malaria and blood troubles, and it proved so good that I have continued ever since using it as a family remedy. It is a pleasure for me to recommend S. S. S. for the benefit of others who are needing a first rate blood purifier, tonic and cure for Malaria. Arkansas City, Ark. C. C. HANINGWAY.

A WOMAN'S NERVES.

A THRILLING INCIDENT IN THE HISTORY OF A HOME.

Health Wrecked by Burden of Anxiety Ordinary Medicines Did Not Help. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cure.

Some important facts bearing on an exciting event which occurred in January of 1903, have recently been brought to light. At that time, it will be recalled, an employee was reported to have made an attempt to stab his employer, Mr. J. A. Wyatt. The murderous purpose fortunately failed, and the courts disposed of the legal aspects of the case. The public excitement died down, but the matter had other grave results, which for a long time threatened to make it a tragedy. Mrs. Wyatt who had been prostrated by anxiety for her husband, did not recover from the severe shock to her nervous system, and the doctors in charge of the case exerted themselves in vain to help her.

To a reporter who visited her home at No. 1189 Seventh street, Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. Wyatt described her condition at this time, as follows:

"My solicitude was so great that it affected my heart and then my stomach. I had pain in the region of the heart, palpitation and shortness of breath so that I could not walk very fast. My head ached very badly and I was finally seized with vomiting spells whenever I took any food. A doctor was called who pronounced a trouble gastritis, but he gave me no relief. Then I tried a second doctor without benefit. By this time I had become very weak. I could not keep the most delicate broth on my stomach, and at the end of a month I was scarcely more than skin and bone and was really starving to death."

"I don't look now like a woman just ready to die, do I? Well, I owe the recovery of my health to a very simple circumstance. One day when I was downhearted at the failure of everything that had been done for me, I recalled how much benefit my sister had got from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to take them. They helped me right away. In four days I could take weak tea and crackers. In two weeks I was able to leave my bed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were the only thing that checked the vomiting and as soon as that was stopped my other difficulties left me. I have a vigorous appetite now, and am able to attend to all the duties of my home."

Not only great anxieties but small daily worries use up nervous force, and in multitudes of such cases every organ of the body finally gets out of order for the nerves supply the vital energy to every part. Cases like these do not yield to ordinary medicines. They are reached and promptly cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, because these marvelous pills act at once on the blood and supply it with nourishing elements that are carried to every nerve in the body.

The way to feel well, and to be well, is to keep the blood pure and rich. The remedy that does that the most quickly, thoroughly, and cheaply, is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are sold by all druggists.

The great success attending the presentation of "The Price of Honor" tomorrow matinee and night melodramatic offering at Forest opera house is abundant proof that we no longer have to depend upon England for our plays of heart interest. New York city furnishes the locale for this now famous play and from certain elements of its daily life the playwright has evolved a drama of intense emotional value. We are introduced to an entirely new series of stage characters and the chronicle of their relations to one another has added another great melodrama to the stage of America. "The Price of Honor" is original in construction, its dialogue is sparkling, its climax is thrilling and its comedy element is natural and ingenious. Another phase of the unending war between virtue and vice is vigorously treated and to witness a performance of "The Price of Honor" is indeed an enjoyable experience.

and bronchial affections is offered in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy cuts the mucus, heals the membranous lining of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes; wards off pneumonia and strengthens the system generally. Croup and whooping cough disappear before its use as snow before the sunshine of spring. It's pleasant. H. F. Vorkamp, druggist.

more than one hundred thousand dol-

General Grover has it down

Irishmen will vote for Roosevelt because he is a man of war and that the Irish will support him because he is a man of peace. The majority of the

ROOSEVELT'S SELFISHNESS

The Indianapolis Sentinel says that it can be plainly seen by anyone who has followed Mr. Roosevelt's career, even casually, that there is and has been in all this time only one person who completely satisfies him. That one person is Theodore Roosevelt himself. He has found fault with nearly every great man the country has produced. And when by a deplorable event he became President of the United States, he immediately began to use his "big stick" on men who towered so far above him that he appeared a mere pigmy. He insulted Gen. Miles publicly and in the most brutal manner. He treated Admiral Dewey with the roughest disrespect.
And as to Admiral Schley, the whole country knows how Roosevelt tried to humiliate him. Senator Bayard who was principal counsel for Schley, said in a recent speech: "The President promised to give Admiral Schley a fair hearing. He broke his promise and was guilty of duplicity, schism and deprived of his constitutional right to present his case before a single jury, and upon the expense statement of his antagonistic enemies, thePresident, who was a mere tyro and apprentice in the art of military warfare, and his secretary Mr. Long, who was a metaphysician, and whose great naval battles had all been fought with lead pencils and stripes of India rubber and waste of blotting paper, pronouned a sentence against this soldier of the sea, which has decorated their heads with a crown of immortal infamy."If Roosevelt should be elected we

"to the dungeon with him" administration.

TROUBLE IN PANAMA.

The little country of Panama is going to have its say, as well as the voters of this country are going to have their say in November. The representatives of the former government charge the administration of the latter with bad faith in putting the terms of the canal treaty into effect,
and General Davis with the exercise of undue authority, and Roosevelt thinks the situation is serious enough to send Tait—secretary of war—down to the isthmus to seek an adjustment without creating too much furor in the minds of his own countrymen just before election.According to the Panamanians, the latter find themselves treated as residents of a foreign country on either side of the canal lands, which run through the middle of their republic.
The United States has established custom houses within the canal zone and assess the Dingley rate of duty on all goods entering there from Panama. Just as from other foreign countries.This situation it is claimed, means ruin to the commerce of the republic.
One of the principal grievances against the United States is that Panama has been deprived of all her sources of public revenue.The United States has established postoffices within the canal zone. A two-cent stamp bought there will carry a letter to the United States. It takes a five cent Panamanian stamp to communicate with the United States.Road taxes are also being collected by the United States within the zone.
If a person takes a carriage in Panama to drive to La Boca, a distance of 212 miles, a tax of two or three dollars is levied on the vehicle to help keep up the roads.The Panamanians could scarcely expect better, after the treachery the administration exhibited in its treatment of Colombia.

PLAIN FACTS.

Daniel M. Hall, a Washington writer whose works are considered authority has prepared a pamphlet entitled "Plains Facts and Figures," which should be read by every voter.By way of preface to his arguments Mr. Hall says:"Food, clothing and shelter, with such furnishings and conveniences as respectable citizenship requires, are necessary to human happiness, and the great majority of people obtain these necessities only by working for them. The American people, however, have great advantages for which they are indebted to no political party. Nature has given them the best of everything on the most liberal scale. They have food stuffs of nearly every variety, grown in abundance within the limits of their own country; coal, iron and steel in quantities that cannot be equaled in size to Europe; they have a plentiful supply of almost every thing in the shape of raw materials for manufactures at hand, and ample facilities for moving their products from point to point as needed. In a word they have nearly every resource of field, forest and mine, supplemented by lakes, rivers and harbors, with an ease of transportation to make their natural wealth available. And still another immense advantage, they have absolute free trade between all the states within a country of continental proportions.With such natural endowments, under Democratic auspices, peace, order, prosperity and happiness abounded. There were abundant gains for all; even the farmers, whose prosperity gauges the thrift of all other classes, with all the chances of flood and drought, frost and insect pest against them, added more than ten percent to their wealth every year of the last decade of Democracy. If debts were then incurred by farmers, they were not often disastrous for their regular gains were sufficient to meet them."But under the waning touch of Republicanism all was changed. A pitiless tariff has taken half the earnings of workmen and has not only robbed them of their comforts but largely of the opportunities which were their dependence. Republican policies have desolated the homes of millions and driven their inmates to tenancy, pauperism and despair. Good men have been turned to tramps and left to wander their wayward way in hunger and rage. The rich effects of the Creator are perverted, nine-tenths of the surplus gains of labor are snatched by the greedy few. The great purposes of life are defeated and the party are made a living sacrifice to the Mammon of Republicanism. With the value of farm property increasing annually at the rate of only 2 and 7-10 per cent, farmers may see the peril of indebtedness with regular rates of interest, and also a warning in the rapidly increasing number of farm tenants."Tariff exactions fasten on every laborer a burden which may be likened to a chain and ball that requires half his strength to carry it about. How greatly then, is the productive power of the people diminished? How greatly poverty, crime and degradation are increased? And yet, despite the fearful load the wealth-producers have to carry, the unlimited resources of the country, its freedom of inter-trade, the vigor and hopefulness of its inhabitants, have made it possible for great development to be shown in many respects, as indicated by statistics.""But it is only by comparing the results of special privileges, and the concentration of wealth, which have enslaved the country under Republicanism, with the equality and general distribution of wealth that blessed the country when democracy prevailed, that one can have any realizing sense of the heights of prosperity to which we should be raised if labor were given a free field with its carmine untouched by the inequality of tariff taxation and special privilege. Under such conditions the springs of production would be free and the immense increase of opportunity would assure ample employment and comfort tothe humblest worker. Want and fear of want would disappear. Men would not need to strike for better terms, and there would be no occasion for worry about getting employment,
more than the healthy person worries about sleeping or breathing."

AN ELECTRIC THUNDERER

An inventor of some has submitted for examination to the war office there an engine called an electric thunderer.
It scatters advancing troops by means of electric discharges without killing them. The shock of battle will bear a different significance in future. And instead of beans the defeated army will get currents.—London Globe.Dyspepsia—bane of human exist-

Verdict Was Given
Tierney

In His Action

For Damages Against
the Lake Erie.Second Trial of the Case
Gives About Ten Times
Original Finding.Sued for Loss of His Job at Main Street Crossing and Was Allowed the Sum of $3,000.00.Wm. Tierney, whose name has been on the bar docket for a number of years as plaintiff in an action for damages against the Lake Erie & Western railroad, yesterday evening obtained a verdict in the hands of the jury which awarded him a judgment of $3,000.Tierney's case grew out of his discharge as a watchman at the Main street crossing, a position he secured
after an injury which crippled him for life. He claimed to have entered into a contract that gave him the position so long as his work was satisfactory, but he was discharged without cause only a short time after he had gone to work.The case was tried once before and he obtained a judgment for only $240.
An appeal to the circuit and supreme courts resulted in the case being remanded for a new trial and the same verdict, at least for the plaintiff, was the result.

Not Much at Stake.

The jury retired at three o'clock
this afternoon to consider a verdict
in the case of Christian Geiger vs.
Amelia Kemper, in which the sum of $42 is involved. The action grew out of the laying of a cement sidewalk.

was 18.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it own as close as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing thoroughly for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the heat. As a general liniment for

A BIG CROWD IS EXPECTED

To Be in Lima to Hear William J. Bryan's Speech Next Monday.

C. & E. Railroad Will Run a Special Train From Elgin and Spencerville--Over Four Thousand Voters Have Registered In Lima.

William J. Bryan, the talented Nebraskan who is doing such noble work for the cause of democracy and in support of the candidacy of Judge Alton B. Parker, the democratic nominee for president, concluded his eight day tour of Indiana last night, and went to Louisville. From Kentucky he will go to West Virginia and on next Monday he will cross the Buckeye state and deliver a number of speeches, including the one scheduled to be delivered in this city, Monday afternoon. While in the Hoosier state, Mr. Bryan addressed meetings in fifty counties and received an aggregate attendance of about three hundred thousand voters.

The special train which the democratic executive committee of this state will provide for the tour of Mr. Bryan in this state is scheduled to arrive in this city over the Pennsylvania railroad at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, and Mr. Bryan will speak from the platform of the special car which will be provided for him. The Allen county executive committee has advised the meeting as thoroughly as the time would permit and it is expected that there will be a big crowd in the city Monday afternoon to hear the noted orator.

The C. & E. railroad will run a special train to this city from Elgin, Van Wert county, to accommodate the democrats who desire to attend from points along the line west of this city. The train will have the following schedule, starting from Elgin: Leave Elgin at 1:15 p. m., Spencerville at 1:30, Kempton at 1:40, arrive in Lima at 2 o'clock. The special will leave Lima on the return trip at 2:30 o'clock in the evening.

At one o'clock, there will be a meeting of democrats at headquarters in Wheeler hall. Short addresses will be made and an hour will be devoted to hand-shaking and good fellowship.

Numbers Drawn at St. Rose Festival.

Attendance Was Large Again Last Night and a Good Sum Will Be Realized.

As the fall festival being now held under the auspices of the ladies of St. Rose church progresses, it grows in interest as well as in attendance. The basement hall of the school was filled last night by an enthusiastic gathering who spent a very pleasant evening in social intercourse. Among those who were lucky in the different evening contests last evening were:

Miss Margaret K. O'Connell drew a fine piece of Battenberg, which, if dame rumor can be relied upon, will come handy in helping to adorn her own home. This evening the contest between Miss Rita Caffrey and Miss Anna Gorman for a diamond ring, will conclude and the winner announced. A gold rosary is contested for by Louise Spillay and Mary Veasey which will also conclude tonight. Someone will get a fine hot blast heating stove for one dollar. The festival will conclude tomorrow night, and the most interesting features will take place this evening and Saturday evening. ### Barney Oldfield Will Try for the Championship.

Fresh from his victory over Earl Kiser at Cleveland, when he defeated that driver and established world's records, "Barney" Oldfield will arrive in New York today for the race at Brighton Beach on Saturday for the American championship.

Oldfield's St. horsepower Green Dragon is now going faster than ever. On Saturday, from a standing start, he covered ten miles in 17, and in the journey rode two successive miles each in 0:53.25, a performance never before equaled. Despite the slow first mile from a standing start in 1:07.25, he averaged a little over 55 seconds for each mile of the journey.

Pitted against him on Saturday will be Edward Hawley, with E. R. Thomas's new 30 horsepower Mercedes racer, Joseph Jaglesberger, with Harry S. Barkness's 120 horsepower freak; Maurice G. Bernin, with W. Gould Brokaw's 60 horsepower Buick racer; Paul Sartori, with Alfred Greyand Vanderbilt's Italian racing machine; Frank Kulek, with the 20 horsepower Ford skeleton, and Joseph Tracy, with the Royal car.

Still Operating at Dunkirk And the Town Is at the Mercy of the Outlaws.

Detective Curry Has a Difficult Task in Running Them Down.

But Is Satisfied That the Three Now in Jail Are Being Revenged By Their Free Companions.

It seems that the visit of Detective Curry at Dunkirk, with the quartette of blood hounds, was only partially successful, as the reign of lawlessness still continues in the little town just across the border of Hancock county. When Detective Curry was in Lima on his way to the man hunt he stated that the gang at work in and around the village had grown bold with repeated success, and he hoped, with the assistance of the dogs to be able to break it up. The success of his trip was published the following day, when three horse traders were bagged and have since been bound over to the grand jury.

Wednesday, however, robbers broke into the home of W. W. Chase, as early as four o'clock and secured $40. Detective Curry, who has been employed to run down and secure evidence against the gang was at once notified, and he sums up the situation as follows:

Joseph Lee, aged 50, who is confined in the county jail, is the father of Walter Lee, 21, and father-in-law of Ed Beecher Miller, who are also confined in the jail. Miller is the one held on the most barbarous charge of all.

Joseph Lee's mother was a sister to K. Tolliver, one of the most notorious feudists Kentucky has ever known. The Lees are to this day considered outlaws in Breathitt and Carter counties, Kentucky, from which they were held as law breakers and horse thieves. It was Wilson Moore, of the gang at Dunkirk, a cousin of the trio behind the bars, who told Norman Johnson, a well known farmer of Dunkirk, that his gang meant to get even with the town for running down his pals on last Friday.

Detective Curry secured his information from the Lees themselves and put previous information with it to complete the identity. It is said there are two or three camps of desperadoes near Dunkirk.

The horse was unhurt and ran down the street dragging the shafts behind it.

Train No. 1 was in charge of conductor A. L. Heath and Engineer R. B. Hekok at the time of the accident.

In New Brunswick. A report from Monroton, N. The fields in West Moreland and Alberta are developing very rapidly, and Mr. Frank Denton, K. C. of Toronto, has obtained a lease of a large area on the Alberta county side of the Petrolia river. This district has been partly developed, and is known to be underlaid with oil. Four good wells have already been struck, and large expectations are entertained of the outlook. Abundance of capital is available for developing the field, and work will be proceeded with on a large scale at once."

In Southeastern Ohio. A combination of rank dusters has been completed in the Latonia field in Columbiana county, in southeastern Ohio. The Carter Oil Co. has dry holes on the Fried and Gay farms. H. H. Highland has one on the Rogers farm, as has Messrs. Brown, on the Wooster farm. ## A FORTUNE

Made From His Crops of Rhubarb.

A Bank Cashier Who Had Lost Money

Went to Work on a Six Acre Farm and Made His Rhubarb Net Him $700 Per Acre.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 21.—The financial panic of 1896 made many changes in the occupations of men. Bankers became farmers and miners became tramps. Few of those unfortunate losers of all they possessed entered fields of labor they had expected. Many were compelled to accept the offers that came their way. So it was that W. H. Paulhamus, a bank cashier, was forced out on a little farm near Seattle. The property did not pay its way, and prospects for making a living were not very bright.

Six acres were planted in pie-plant or rhubarb. Farmers gazed in wonderment at the man, as that area represented the largest tract ever devoted to that crop in the state. The roots planted were of the old English Linnaeus variety. They were set in rows four feet apart each way, and cultivated with a plow. The land had been preoccupied by an orchard carrying good varieties of apples, pears and cherries. These trees were left to stand.

The farm required much fertilizing and constant working to give returns. But two crops on the same area, but carefully handled, brought results. In the past four years the rhubarb has sold for $500 to $700 an acre. From the trees overshadowing the pie-plant, the crops of fruit have returned more than $100 an acre annually. Thus the bankers have become the capitalists, and is now known as the "rhubarb king."

But the banker-rhubarb king of Washington does not depend on the summer crop alone. He has pie-plant every month in the year. His profits are made on the winter output from a house constructed for the purpose. This house is made of common lumber and built as cheaply as a poultry house. It is perfectly dark and only about seven feet high. On the first day of January, the rhubarb roots are set in the house in beds made of earth and manure. A fire is built in the stove that furnishes heat and temperature kept up to seventy degrees.

Two weeks after planting the roots the winter rhubarb house has stalks ready for market. These are sold throughout the northwest to regular patrons at 25 cents a pound. The market continues from the middle of January until the middle of March. As an illustration of the money made in a winter rhubarb house, this Washington man has one small piece, 20x50 feet, costing $10 to construct, that brings him an average of $400 every year for winter rhubarb grown in the house. That was his experimental winter house.

And the pie-plant has developed either paying propositions on the little farm of forty-seven acres. The owner has five acres planted in raspberries and blackberries. When the market for rhubarb is over he ships berries. His income from that acreage has never been less than $500 an acre during the past four years. The highest returns range about $750 an acre. An army of pickers is necessary, but the best results represent handsome returns on the investment, and makes the owner also a berry king.

Poultry will pasture in the berry fields and not disturb either the blossoms or fruit. They destroy the insects and lift out the weeds. In addition to fertilizing and cultivating the land. Because of these arguments the rhubarb king has a flock of several hundred Leghorns and Plymouth Rock chickens. He sells cases of eggs every day. Each egg bears his label with name, date of taking from the roost, and time of shipment. When ordinary ranch eggs are selling in the open market for 15 cents per dozen, he disposes of his at private sale for 35 cents per dozen.

Best of the rhubarb field is another six-acre tract devoted to asparagus. This plant is one of the most profitable for early crops in the northwest. Returns of $900 have been reported from one acre. The stalks are wanted in every home, at all hotels and restaurants and the demand is seldom equal to the supply. An additional army of men and women must be employed to cut and prepare the asparagus for market. Yet it pays a handsome profit.

With four good paying propositions the banker-farmer is not satisfied. He recently made a visit to the blue grass region of old Kentucky and purchased a carload of Jersey cows. These make up a nice dairy herd kept on the rhubarb farm. A glimpse at the books, kept by the former cashier shows that after all expenses are deducted the net income from fifteen cows averages $110 per month. This represents the cash received after the hired help is paid, the feed bills settled and all possible expenses taken out of the creamery checks.

"Yes, that is a pretty good story," said the rhubarb king, "but it does not include my fine dogs, imported pigeons, bronze turkeys and Belgian hares. My advice to young men is to look after some of the producing occupations of life. Do not look too high, but take some of the small things the people must have and make a specialty of the work. The plant is only one of many hundreds of opportunities open in every state for the man who will use his brains and muscle."

THE PEOPLE ALL

to Chorus Fried, Give Us Newborn's Herpes.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBORN'S HERPES does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPES means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBORN'S HERPES promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpetide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BEETS

Being Hauled By Train Loads

And the Traffic

Means Big Business for
the C. H. & D.

Elevator May Be Established
at Deshler to Facilitate Matters

As This Season's Crop Will Call
For at Least 3,000 Cars - Pennsylvania Inspection Party
In Lima.

One of the principal sources of traffic enjoyed by the C. H. & D. on the south end is but little known to the public, and yet the company, by the close of the season, will have hauled in the neighborhood of 3,000 car loads of sugar beets, the entire product being raised in the vicinity of Deshler and nearby points.

So voluminous has the business grown that there is to be an elevator erected at Deshler to facilitate the handling of the annual crop, which has been a great success this year. Orders have been received for as high as twenty donkey cars a day and the company is finding no little trouble in furnishing the necessary number. It is a common sight now to see a long train of cars loaded to the limit with monster beets, consigned to the big factories at Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Detroit, O. They are scooped from wagons into open cars and payment is made at the factories at so much per ton.

The soil north of Lima seems to be admirably suited for the raising of a crop which stands the chemical test, and the crop pays a much larger per cent than corn or the other cereals.

Big Fuel Bill.
Last year the Pennsylvania spent $1,194,156 for fuel for its lines east of Pittsburgh and $4,436,417 for the lines west, a total of $5,630,573. This does not include the fuel used on the Vandalia, the G. R. & I. and other roads. The inclusion of these lines would bring the total to near $20,000,000.

Toledo Owns R. R. Stock.
Among the assets of Toledo is a block of Dayton & Michigan railroad stock on which the city has drawn about $120,000 in the 42 years it has been held by the municipality. How the city came to get that stock is an interesting chapter in the anti-bellum history of the municipality.

In 1861 the city was given this stock in payment for certain rights of way and terminal facilities, and has lain in the strong boxes ever since. Although at one time a city council, having had up for ready cash, wanted to dispose of it, in order to secure funds without increasing the city indebtedness.

Luckily the deal fell through, and the stock still continues to add about $100,000 annually to the city revenues.

City Auditor Bacon is getting ready to collect the dividend, which is paid this month. He says that perhaps the reason why the city has kept the stock so long is because the secretary of the company, at the time the stock was issued, was "Preserver" Smith.

Clover Leaf Sold.
The sale of the Clover Leaf Railroad to the Pere Marquette-Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton system is practically assured, says a Chicago dispatch.

President Shonts, of the Clover Leaf returned today from New York, and admitted that the road practically was sold, but he refused to name the purchaser pending the execution of the final papers.

The Clover Leaf soon will be taken up by one of the large eastern systems," said President Shonts.

The price named was for cash, and it was sufficient to make our investment in the Clover Leaf satisfactory to us. What I took as a "big in the pocket" has turned out to be a most valuable property. It is strategically situated, and a big increase in its traffic is inevitable.

President Shonts and Paul Norton, secretary of the navy, are the principal stockholders in the Clover Leaf. They acquired control of it less than a year ago at a low price.

Union Pacific Statement.
New York, Oct. 21.—The pamphlet report of the Union Pacific railroad for the fiscal year ended June 30 last, issued today, shows:

Gross earnings $55,279,231, increase $1,204,012.

Operating expenses $29,026,007, increase $1,686,723.

Net earnings $26,253,224, increase $2,517,319.

After receipt of other income and payment of total charges, there remained a surplus for the year of $1,712,456, a decrease of $230,918.

The report sets forth that owing to the decline in the Northern Securities Co. suit, the Oregon Short Line has been unable to collect its Northern Securities dividends since February last, and was sold during the year 1903.

The 100,000 face value Union Pacific railroad Co.'s five per cent. collateral notes, maturing February 1, 1905. The proceeds were used in further advances to the Southern Pacific for new lines, the completion of steamships in Mexico and Mongolia, and in the purchase of other equipment.

In addition to the above mentioned the company have incurred loans to the amount of $13,128,000. Against these liabilities they have a large excess in demand loans to the Southern Pacific Co., which, on June 30, 1904, amounted to $20,460,927, in advance for the construction of and investment in new lines and equipment aggregating $27,533,815, and in other free assets in the form of unpledged stocks and bonds. During the year the Oregon Short Line railroad purchased a one-half interest in the Great Northern.

Salt Lake railroad company. This company has under construction a line of railroad from San Pedro and Los Angeles, Cal., to Salt Lake City, Utah, with various branches. On account of this investment there was paid to June 30, 1904, the sum of $11,956,600. In addition to this, free asset, the companies have advanced $12,459,871 for the construction of new lines, for the completion of steamships and for additional rolling stock.

Ask $4,000 Damages.
Albert Gerber, as administrator of the estate of Martin L. Bulger, has brought suit in the superior court at Fort Wayne to recover $4,000 damages from the Wabash and C. H. & D. railroad companies. Bulger was under a car on a Wabash switch last December making some repairs when a C. H. & D. passenger train ran into an open switch and struck the train of which the car he was repairing was a part. He received injuries that resulted in his death. The complaint recites that Bulger was ordered by his conductor to repair the car.

Reed Has a Birthday.
Agent John Reed, of the Pennsylvania had visions of a big tourist business last night, when several different persons kept him engaged until long after six o'clock, figuring on rates to Oklahoma and other distant points. The fact was that Mrs. Reed was playing for time and managed to keep her husband away until the arrival of several guests, who were invited to a surprise dinner given in honor of the general agent's birthday anniversary.

The ruse was successful and the pleasures of the evening more than paid for the loss of the supposed passenger traffic. Those present were: Freight Agent W. W. Crooks and wife, Passenger Agent F. A. Burkhardt of the C. H. & D., and wife, a brother of Mr. Reed, and Taylor Longworth, operator for the Lake Erie & Western.

Just a Glimpse.
Three specially equipped trains on the Pennsylvania passed through Lima yesterday, having on board General Manager G. L. Beck, Gen. Supt. Schoy and a large number of other officials, including division superintendent, civil engineers and road supervisors. The party was out on the annual track inspection of lines west of Pittsburgh. There was nothing at Lima to detain any of the three trains, all of which passed through the city without stopping.

Along All Lines.
Wm. Littlejohn, of Fort Wayne, has been placed in charge of the blacksmith department of the Pere Marquette shops at Grand Rapids.

Ex-President M. D. Woodford, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, has resumed a residence at Kalamazoo, Mich., which he gave up when he became the active head of the big railway. He spent the summer at Charlevoix, where he was nearly restored to health.

John O'Connor, yard conductor for the B. & O., at Garrett, has returned to that place after a visit with his mother on north Jackson street.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS!

Do Not Endanger Life and Health When a Cure Is So Easy.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness and stiffness in the back, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use because it given to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work. That Doan's Kidney Pills cure and cure permanently is proven in a Lima citizen's statement.

If you have any, even one of the numerous symptoms of kidney disease, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in and death results. Read this testimony:

L. Van Pelt, shoemaker, at 121 south Union street, Lima, Ohio, says: "Time has only served to increase my appreciation of the value of Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney medicine. In a statement made in 1896, I told how this remedy, procured at Wm. M. McVittie's drug store, freed me from attacks of backache which extended clear up to my shoulder blades and lameness through the loins. In order that residents of Lima might know that I was sincere I confirmed my testimony in 1898, and am glad to still further strengthen the statement with evidence which lapse of time can only furnish."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

IN KANSAS AFTER THE WAR.

After the civil war a Boston man was stopping at the Planters' house, the principal hotel of Leavenworth, Kan., and coming down to breakfast late one morning he met one of that hotel with the landlord.

"Well, Mr. —" said the landlord.

THE IDLER.

Otto Myers, who has been employed at the Manhattan hotel almost all of the time since that place was established leaves this evening for Munich, Ind., where he has accepted a position in G. T. Dorst's restaurant. He went to Bluffton, O., last night to visit his mother before going to his new position.

Jack Shannon, of Delphos, manager of the oil properties of the Eureka Oil and Gas Co., of New York, was in town Thursday, closing up a deal for the company's leases on the Peter Kelley, Peter and Thos. Burke farms, in Moulton township to M. J. Lynch, H. H. Smith and T. S. Mitchell, of Lima. There are nine wells on the leases with a production of about ten barrels.—St. Marys Argus.

Judge Norris, of Marion, of the circuit bench, who is now in the city with Judge Day, of Colima, conducting the regular session of circuit court, is a most interesting conversationalist and upon his regular visits here he always has something new and instructive to tell. This time it is the imparting of the information that statistics show that since the opening of the Russian-Japanese war, in February, the number killed in the United States by steam and electric railways and in steam and electric railway travel has been equal to the number that has been killed in the naval and land battles between the Russians and Japs.—Bellevue Index.

The Lima Athletic Association for next Friday, on the home grounds appears first upon the program. This team outweights the Bluffton team, but the local high school will give them a merry run for their money. A week later Columbus Grove high school will visit the city, and negotiations are being made with Lima and Findlay high schools.—Bluffton News.

"Buz" Mackey is coming fast, and in a hour in Dayton the other night so interested the followers of the boxing game there that they want him back again. The Findlay man was willing and has been matched to meet a fast chap named Henderson. The bout will occur in two weeks, and both boxes are to weight in at 120 pounds at the ringside.—Toledo Times.

M. L. Frazier, who was nominated for county auditor by the Republicans last spring, removed his family to Lima a few weeks later, and is now a resident of Allen county. Not desiring to inconvenience Mr. Frazier with the task of moving back into Auglaize to assume the duties of auditor, the county organization has substituted the name of W. R. Green, of Untoplis.—St. Marys Graphic.

W. H. Woolery has sold his residence on west Spring street and will remove to a suite of rooms in the Bennett flats.

The Athletic foot ball eleven has cancelled the date with Toledo for next season's contest to December 1st.

of slight injuries and absence from town. A game will be played with the St. Marys team at Wheeler park, October 30.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at H. F. Vorkamp's drug store, corner Main and North streets.

PROMINENT

Teachers Will Attend Coming Educational Meeting.

A conference to which the educational interests of the state are looking forward with great expectations, will be held at Columbus December 28, 29 and 30. It will be the first meeting of "The Allied Educational Association of Ohio," and its purposes will be to discuss the broad subject of education in all its phases and secure interchange of views that will be of mutual benefit to the instructors of the state.

While the plan is new in this state it has been in force in Illinois, Nebraska and other states for some time. President Charles W. Dabney, of the University of Cincinnati, will make the annual address, and Governor Herrick, School Commissioner Jones, Mayor Jeffrey, of Columbus, and President Charles F. Thwing, of Western Reserve University, are to be on the program.

One day will be in charge of the women, the sessions to be presided over by Mrs. Samuel B. Smith, president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, and addresses will be made by five prominent women of the state. On Friday night the Ohio State Association of Educators will give an entertainment.

Among the more prominent educational societies that will be represented are the Ohio College Association, Ohio Teachers' Federation, Ohio Township Superintendents' Association of County Examiners, Ohio Library Association, Ohio Academy of Science and the Ohio State Association of Educators.

The officers of the general committee having the arrangements in charge are as follows: Chairman, Dr. Oscar Christman, of Ohio University, Athens; Secretary, Superintendent J. J. Richardson, Westville; Treasurer, Superintendent, F. P. Geiger, Canal Dover; Auditor, Superintendent, Aaron Grady, Nelsonville; Transportation, Manager, Prof. George W. Todd, North High School, Columbus.

"How do you like our western country?"

"I like it very well," said the Boston man, "for would it society here were in a more settled state."

"Nonsense," said the landlord, "our society is as settled as that of Boston."

Just then a man named Anthony, burst into the dining room and out of a back door, with a man named Jennison pumping lead at him at every jump, and following him but into the outbuilding in the rear of the hotel.

"How about society being as settled here as in Boston?" said the Boston man as he and the landlord crawled out from under opposite sides of the table.

BUFFALO BILL'S FOUR KINGS.

The report that President Roosevelt and some members of the English royal family will shortly go hunting in the Big Horn mountains with Buffalo Bill, recalls a story told of Col. Cody in the book "The Adventures of Buffalo Bill." It was while Colonel Cody was in London, exhibiting his Wild West show, that King Edward, then the Prince of Wales, attended the performance. He was so taken with its novelty that he expressed a wish to ride in the Deadwood coach. There happened to be four kings then visiting England, and they too were spectators—the kings of Denmark, Saxony, Greece, and the crown prince of Austria. They accompanied the prince in the coach, and a lively trip ensued. When it was over the prince congratulated Buffalo Bill, and said:

"Colonel, did you ever hold four kings like that before?"

"Yes, your royal highness," replied Cody, "I have held four."

MEERSCHAUM OUT OF DATE.

"Did it ever strike you how completely the meerschaum was vanishing?" asked the veteran tobacco buyer in the smoking-room at the Imperial yesterday. "Possibly not, but to men in my business it is very noticeable. For the meerschaum pipe and the cigar holder of the same material were a generation ago, and had been for generations before that, the pets of men who smoked. It was a very poor man indeed who did not own one or both, and many a man prized his collection of meerschaums above all things else among his fads. Now the brier pipe is everywhere, east of the Mississippi at least, and the cigar holder in any form is a rarity. The handsomely-carved meerschaum pipe is now as much of a curiosity as would be one of the long-stemmed, chiseled pipes of the old-time Germans that I used to see hundreds of in my insured store."—New York Times.

TOLEDO LINE TO BE BUILT.

Local Capital Behind the Project Made Public at Ottawa.

Right-of-Way Through the Town Is Asked for At a Meeting Addressed by Hon. Walter B. Richie and D. J. Cable.

From the Ottawa end of the project, publicity is given to another interior venture which has been kept under cover until such time as the promoters were prepared to carry out their intentions. Lima people will concede that it is not an air castle, but one that is backed by men who first know that they are right and then go ahead.

At the back of it are those who represent the Lima Street Railway Co. together with associates of equal financial standing and business integrity. The news was carried to Ottawa by the presentation of plans demonstrated by Hon. W. B. Richie and D. J. Cable, who addressed a meeting at the city hall Wednesday evening, and asked for a right of way through the town for a line to extend from Lima to Toledo.

Such a road has been the talk from the first sign of electric railroad fever in Lima, and it is only a question now of securing the desired route. Just how the proposition is received at Ottawa is told in the following accounts appearing in the Sentinel and Gazette.

THE BEST OF ALL

Says the Ottawa Gazette of the Proposed Electric Line.

Of all the numerous and varied propositions for securing a traction line that have been open to Ottawa in the past five years, the most plausible and hopeful one is now presented. The people who built and operate the Lima City street railway are now here at work securing right of way and franchises through the town north of Lima to Toledo with a view to building a line between those points as soon as the work can be started. An enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Ottawa was held at which Hon. W. B. Richie and Mr. Cable of Lima were present to represent the railroad people. These gentlemen stated that it would take two or three weeks in which to secure franchises right of way, complete the legal publication of resolutions and ordinances, etc., at the end of which time they were ready to begin the work of construction.

The people of Ottawa are anxious to have the traction line, but there is one thing concerning it that is causing some opposition and that is the point of entrance into the town. The railroad people are desirous of using Walnut street. There is a division even among the residents along this street as to whether or not the franchise should be given along that route. Some are in favor and many others are opposed. Walnut street is narrow, especially at the hill across the town where the paving is but twenty feet wide and as it is presently a residence street and the main entrance to the town from the north there are reasonable grounds for the opposition. Another meeting is to be held the situation thoroughly canvassed and there is no doubt an agreement will be reached that will be satisfactory and to the best interests of all concerned. The people back of the proposition are able financially and otherwise to carry out any transaction they may undertake and as they are anxious to build the road and Ottawa is anxious to get it a common ground can certainly be reached. Push it along.

FIRE

Broke Out at Midnight.

Five Streams

Of Water Used by the Firemen

In Extinguishing the Flames In the Lima Mattress Factory.

Blaze Had Gained a Good Start and Gave South Side and Central Fire Departments a Hard Battle.

Shortly before 12 o'clock last night fire broke out in the factory building of the Lima Mattress Co., a two-story frame structure situated between Spring and Elm streets, on south Union street which was formerly the plant of the Consolidated Bottling Works and was later the J. W. Orr & Co. cigar factory. The fire started in the rear portion of the building and fed by the highly inflammable materials that are used in the manufacture of mattresses, the blaze was a lively one by the time the central and south side fire departments received alarm from box 41, at Main and Elm streets. The flames not only threatened to destroy the entire factory building but also threatened the nearby residences. Four streams of water were run from the new steamer and a fifth one was connected direct to a hydrant at Main and Spring streets. The firemen fought the flames for over two hours, before they finally succeeded in extinguishing them and the wreck left in the wake of the fire was almost complete. Nothing but the shell of the main factory building being left while the contents were practically a total loss.

The loss is reported by Mr. Bornstein to be between five and six thousand dollars with insurance of $1,000.

Lima Woman Falls In Dead Faint

On Hearing Sentence of Work House For Violating the Laws of the State.

A sensation was created in the common pleas court in Wapakoneta during the sentencing of the prisoners. Miss Bessie Gallagher, a former resident of Lima, had been indicted for keeping a house of ill fame in that city. She had entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was standing before the judge to receive her sentence. When Judge Judge Mahers pronounced the sentence of $100 fine and 90 days in the workhouse, she threw up her hands and fainted and fell prostrate on the hard tiling floor of the courtroom in a dead faint. Many attorneys and court officials were standing near the woman when she fell, but they were taken so by surprise it was some time before any one lifted the prostrate woman from the floor and carried her out to another room where she could obtain fresh air. When the woman had sufficiently recovered she was informed by the judge that if she had permitted him to conclude her sentence she would have been informed that the workhouse portion of it would be remitted during her good behavior. Later the fine was reduced to $25.
